Social Care Project and Job Summary

Advance delivers nationally accredited, quality marked services in Hammersmith & Fulham, Westminster, Kensington & Chelsea and Brent. We work within a coordinated partnership response to domestic violence to provide independent domestic violence advocacy and support for women, children and young people and women's community services for women who are involved in the criminal justice system, in anti-social behaviour or are at risk of breaking the law.

The Social Care domestic violence project is a partnership project between Advance, DVIP, Standing Together and Hammersmith and Fulham Social Services which aims to embed early intervention and domestic violence homicide prevention best practice into a multi agency whole family approach response to lead to better outcomes for those involved including children. The purpose of the Social Care IDVA role is to work closely with Social Services to support women who have had Children's Social Care intervention due to domestic violence and to work closely with the project's DVIP male practitioner who will work with the perpetrators of abuse to enable a whole family approach. The post holder will be co-located at Hammersmith Children's Social Cares and will help raise their awareness, identification and response to those experiencing domestic violence, the post holder will also jointly work with Social Services and DVIP on cases to support service users and improve partnership responses.

The post holder will have an excellent understanding of domestic violence and its effects on women and children, and an understanding of children's social care and care proceedings. As an experienced domestic violence advocate who has worked with complex and multiple needs, the post holder will be skilled in risk management and safety planning, remaining calm in a crisis and in handling sensitive information on a daily basis.

Main Duties and Responsibilities:

1. Provide high-quality telephone or face to face crisis intervention, information, advocacy and proactive support to women referred to the service, in respect to risk management and safety planning, criminal and civil remedies, housing, health, welfare rights, and children's legislation.
2. Assess the needs and risks of survivors, carry out short and longer term risk management, safety planning and support and identify and refer to services appropriate to their needs, including MARAC.
3. Advise women of their rights and options for seeking help and support from other agencies, encouraging them to engage with other agencies, making referrals and co-ordinating the provision of multi-agency support where necessary, and proactively advocate to ensure barriers to accessing support and protection are reduced.
4. Work proactively and in co operation with social care and DVIP to keep the client's perspective and safety at the centre of proceedings, maintain referral routes and increase access and earlier intervention resulting in better results for the family.
5. Work proactively to raise awareness and upskill professionals within social care and work with colleagues to successfully develop and deliver training.
6. Participate in multi-agency conferences in respect of children and adults at risk as required, providing reports and undertaking actions as necessary.
7. Keep the service manager and social care links informed of any issues and successes.
8. Ensure that agreed case recording and monitoring systems are kept up to date and secure.
9. Participate in multi-agency working groups, focus groups, and conduct reviews of the project when requested to do so, and follow through on agreed appropriate actions that arise from the Social Care Steering Group meetings attended by Advance management.
10. Ensure that agreed case recording and monitoring systems are kept up to date and secure, and write internal and external reports where required, including for safeguarding conferences, team meetings, managers and others.
11. Work with the Manager s and Monitoring and Evaluation Officer to ensure all monitoring and evaluation for the project is accurate and fully maintained, and keep managers informed of any issues and successes.

General duties:

12. At all times protect the safety and security of the Advance, service users, staff, volunteers and buildings, and the confidentiality of records and other information in line with data protection requirements.
13. Proactively assess the needs and safety of children and women to ensure that any risks/needs identified are addressed, having full regard to Advance's Safeguarding Children's policy and Safeguarding Adults at Risk policy and complying with the Local Safeguarding Children and Adults requirements.
14. Be responsible for personal learning development and keep up to date on research, relevant legislation, policy and practice, and other literature relevant to the project.

15. Participate in supervision, training and meetings as required and work as a member of the team to ensure effective delivery of service and individual work plans.

16. Ensure the effective implementation of Advance's Safeguarding, Health & Safety, Equal Opportunities and other policies and procedures and uphold the core values of Advance.

17. Uphold the rights of women, children and young people who have experienced domestic violence, advocating vigorously for them while offering protective strategies, and appropriate safe services.

18. Work across teams and undertake such other duties, appropriate to the grade and character of the work, as may reasonably be expected.

This job description sets out the duties of the post at the time when it was drawn up and will be reviewed from time to time. Duties may vary from time to time without changing the general character of the duties or the level of responsibility entailed. Such variations are a common occurrence and cannot of themselves justify a reconsideration of the grading of the post.
